

Conjunctions by Chance

Activity sheet

After watching the video review, write the function of each of the parts of speech.

Conjunction Words that link other words, phrases, or clauses together.

Verb Words that show actions, motions, doing, or states of being.

Adverb Words that describe verbs, usually end in 'ly'.

Place the word chosen by your Ozobot in the appropriate column.

Verb	Adverb	Conjunction
Give	Easily	And
Collect	Calmly	But
Play	Excitedly	Or
Travel	Mostly	Nor
Visit		For
		So
		Yet

Conjunctions by Chance

Activity sheet

2

Write a sentence using each word from the Conjunction section of the chart.

Conjunction	Sentence
1 And And shows the connection between	I would like chicken and waffles for breakfast chicken and waffles
2 But But shows the connection between	I ate a lot, but I could still eat dessert. ate a lot and eat dessert
3 Or Or shows the connection between	Would you like an apple or an orange? apple and orange
4 Nor Nor shows the connection between	Neither Joe nor Noah finished their test. Joe and Noah
5 For For shows the connection between	Wolves howled, for the moon was full. wolves howling and the full moon
6 So So shows the connection between	She was tired so she went to bed. tired and going to bed
7 Yet Yet shows the connection between	Sunset was past, yet it was still light outside sunset being past and being light outside

Conjunctions by Chance Map

